

kaya

CONNECT | SHARE | PREPARE

Introducing Kaya

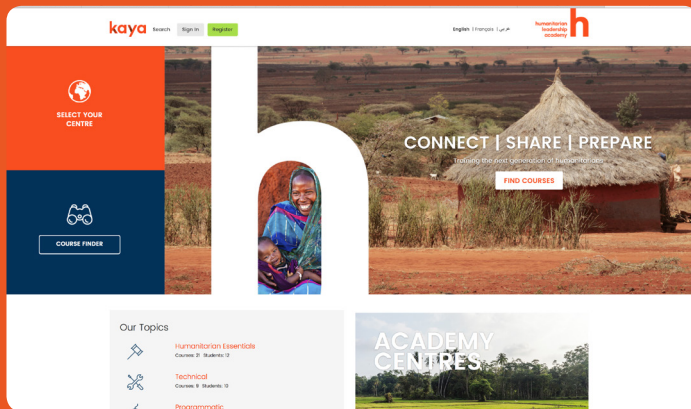

A global humanitarian learning platform

Kaya is a global online learning platform for the humanitarian sector, brought to you by the Humanitarian Leadership Academy. Kaya will train the next generation of humanitarian leaders and responders, especially those located in vulnerable crisis affected countries and communities. Anyone can access, and anyone can contribute.

In the next five years, we are opening ten Centres in vulnerable countries. The Centres will have bespoke learning programmes targeted for the needs of that country or region, supported by blended learning to include face-to-face training and mentoring support.

Kaya will facilitate partnership opportunities with the corporate sector, learning professionals, academia, international institutions, governments and NGOs from across the globe to integrate their learning and technologies for individuals and organisations.

Kaya will build a global network of expertise that reaches people on the ground where the learning tools are most needed. It will integrate local learning to enable connected and resilient communities.

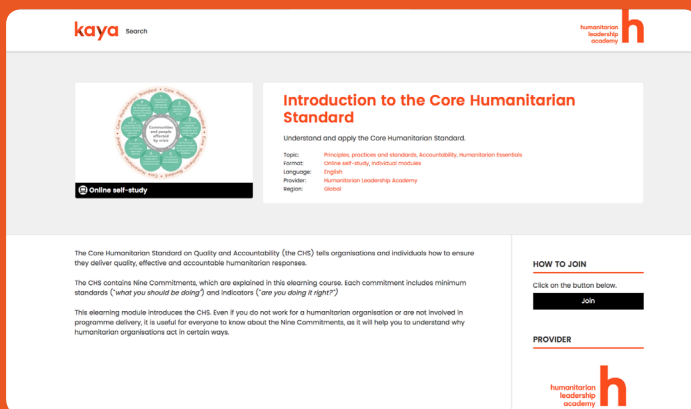

Professional development:

If you are a volunteer or a professional humanitarian – creates tailored learning pathways to meet your needs

Shared learning:

evolving and flexible platform, enabling integration and sharing of partner learning and technologies

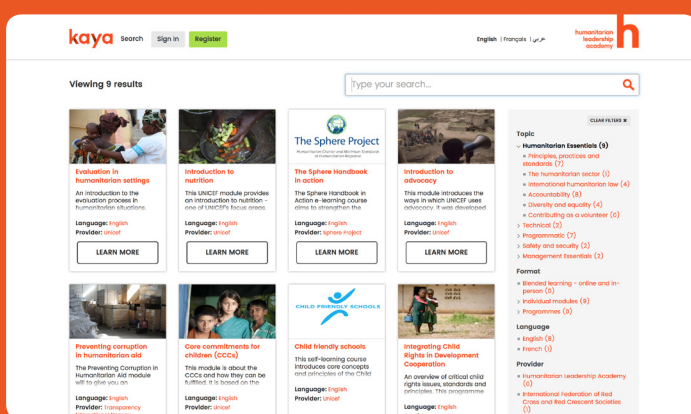

For everyone:

open access learning and resources available to all

Access anywhere:

mobile friendly content that can be accessed offline, in the field, and on the frontline when its needed the most

Wide-ranging content:

from preventing corruption to emergency response

Relevant courses:

local, regional, country, disaster, emergency and professional development specific learning content and experience

What makes Kaya different?

- Kaya is not just an online learning platform, it contains content shared from global, country, regional and local partnerships – bringing you up-to-date and relevant learning targeted to your specific needs.
- If you are a volunteer or a professional humanitarian leader, Kaya has a bespoke professional development pathway with global accreditation to support you throughout your career.
- Centres will develop bespoke learning on Kaya to suit the needs specific to each region or country, from flood defense in the Philippines to drought resistance in Africa – from information to support you in the midst of a disaster to post-disaster recovery.
- Learning content will be shared from the grassroots upwards, to the frontline and senior leaders – sharing and learning from each others experience.
- Kaya will enable interactions and conversations across the humanitarian sector, breaking down barriers to continuously share experiences.

How can you get involved with Kaya?

- Sign up to Kaya: from volunteers or organisation leaders, Kaya will progress your humanitarian career.
- Partner with us: if you want to share your humanitarian learning content or experiences to a local or global audience, email us at kaya@humanitarian.academy
- Find out more: if you want more information on how we can support you or your organisation please email us at kaya@humanitarian.academy

'We envisage a world where people respond to crises in their own countries. Join us in preventing the greatest humanitarian crisis of our time.'

Humanitarian Leadership Academy

A global learning initiative

The Humanitarian Leadership Academy is a global learning initiative set up to facilitate partnerships and collaborative opportunities to enable people to prepare for and respond to crises in their own countries.

The Academy is working with local, national, regional and global organisations, communities and individuals to develop learning resources and tools. Kaya is one of these learning tools.

By supporting people at the grassroots level, the Academy will enable them to be better prepared for a disaster, respond quicker and to have increased resilience after a crisis.

By working in collaboration, the Academy is building a network of expertise that will be shared and utilised immediately when a disaster strikes. Kaya will enable people to continuously share their experiences for the benefit of the humanitarian sector.

Training the next generation of humanitarians

@academyhum

kayaconnect.org